

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Job

Technician for International Sales

Qualification

Technical Bachelor Degree or similar with high English level. Commercial experience, business management & marketing, market research, looking for distributors / customers and computer skills will be very valued.

Job description

The main activities of the technician will be focused on international sales of MicruX products.

The technician will be on charge of the contact with customers and distributors, elaboration of promotional material, development of a marketing plan, market segmentation, reporting of potential customers and attendance at conference.

Offer

Full-time job with a Maternity Leave Replacement Contract (4 months).

Location: Asturias (Spain)

Vacancies: 1

Deadline for CV submission: February 28, 2017